Overpaid & Out of Touch

The $200,000 Club has 46 members, according to 2015 salary figures on union financial reports, and the vast majority are on the Hoffa-Hall payroll.

That may sound like a lot of money, but some want more, which explains why four $200,000 Club members were charged with embezzlement, racketeering, or taking employer payoffs-and a fifth is under investigation.

Most of them have repeatedly told members to take concessions, because times are tough-though the times don't seem so tough in the $200,000 club.

One of them, Becky Strzechowski, was perhaps over-eager: her salaries of $312,934 exceed Hoffa's salary by $3,998, a violation of the Teamster Constitution Article V, Section 1(a). She should have been as careful as her fellow Chicagoan, John Coli, who calculated his salary to come out exactly $1 under the maximum allowed.

By the Numbers

• Four officials in the Club have been charged with serious offenses; one of them, Bill Lichtenwald, promptly resigned, while the other three (Rome Aloise, Willie Smith, Ken Hall) await hearings with a possible result being expulsion from the union. A fifth, Andy Marshall, is under investigation.

• Four (Coli, Strzechowski, Ken Wood, Brian Buhle) were defeated by Teamsters United candidates in the November IBT election. Will Hoffa simply replace their vice president salaries with some phony positions? Another, Bill Elder, was defeated for re-election in his local; so he took "severance" payments to himself and two others, bulking his salary to $275,676 from small local. On December 5, the IIO charged Elder with embezzlement of $97,780.

• Thirteen in the Club saw the members of their locals or units vote for Fred Zuckerman and Teamsters United. That's got to look bad to the boss, but maybe not. Hoffa was one of them. He lost his home local of Pontiac Local 614.

• The total payout for the $200,000 Club for 2015 was $13 million. Even trimming just 25% of thatby cutting needless multiple salaries and ridding the union of some bad apples-would put $3.25 million to work organizing or mobilizing members to win better contracts.

We believe union officers should be compensated well for their work, but greed has no place in our union. The Solution

One solution to bad allocation of union resources is an active, informed membership who stand for solidarity and reject greed. TDU is dedicated to this principle of membership education and involvement.

A key solution is to change the leadership at the IBT and rid the union of corruption, with transparency and putting dues money to work for the members.

Finally, if you agree that knowledge is power, and rank and file Teamsters need power, please join TDU, and help make it happen.
