ALTA – Experienced Legal Representation Seham Seham Meltz & Petersen, *LLP

Professional Legal Representation for Certified Airmen and Technicians.

Our Technicians are some of the most skilled and experienced employees at United Airlines. We are responsible for the Airworthiness Release of thousands of flights every day.

Lee Seham recognizes the importance of the work we do every day that is why he has been a tireless advocate for our profession and more specifically for United Technicians over the past 25 years. He and his firm have represented United Technicians through all of our Representational elections at United Airlines from 1993 through 2003.

Seham Seham Meltz & Petersen represents Pilots and Technicians, and served as our legal counsel at United from 2003 to 2008, including bankruptcy negotiations in 2005. Lee Seham has a long history and years of experience working with the technicians at United Airlines and the Railway Labor Act.

REPRESENTATIVE CLIENTS

- AMFA - Southwest Airlines Techs, Alaska Airlines/Virgin America Techs

Dear Lee,

I want to formally thank you for helping me and protecting my interests and the interests of US Airways pilots and the piloting profession following the recent incident in New York. Your skill, professionalism and dedication to duty are unparalleled and much appreciated.

I owe you a debt of gratitude I fear I may never be able to repay.

It is my privilege to be able to call you a colleague and a friend, forever sharing the bonds forged in the aftermath of Flight 1549.

Fraternally,

Chesley B. Sullenberger, III
Captain, US Airways
