

Alaska Airlines Jr Technicians Average $5.00 Over Teamsters represented Jr United Technicians

Alaska Airlines new Technicians are paid an Average of $5.00 more than Teamsters “represented” new United Technicians. With their recent 5% “all in” Pay raise and their annual 1.5% “all in” raises the gap in pay will only increase. That’s $90,000.00 more in earned wages during the first 8 years than a Jr United Teamsters represented Technician.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Alaska Base Wage	$28.26	$28.80	$29.70	$32.37	$33.31	$35.25	$37.21	$44.36	$44.36
United IBT Base Wage	21.17	24.71	26.43	26.87	27.92	30.17	32.44	37.16	41.08

Teamsters negotiators reduced Junior United technicians’ wages so low, they are now among the lowest paid in the industry.

Junior United Techs, it’s time to sign an ALTA card for a Union that will protect our Jr Technicians and our Profession.
